Description:	This Château des Cinq Hardits 2010 is a high quality wine from one of the so called satellite villages of Saint-Emilion. The wine has an intense red colour and subtle tones of violet. In the nose, next to flavours of black fruits, you will find well-balanced vanilla aromas thanks to the aging of the wine in oak barrels. The tannins are present, but very smooth. The balance between price and quality of this wine is extraordinary. One can expect to hear a lot from it in the near future. The wine maker is Michel Sublett, whose family has a long tradition in the wine business. The Château is situated at 9 km from the village of Saint-Emilion and lies above a series of old caves, who are an ideal location for the aging process of the wine.
